

Mr. P. R. Joshi, President Group HR, Zydus Cadila receives HR Leadership Award at the Asia Pacific HRM Congress

---

February 05, 2007

At the recently concluded Asia Pacific HRM Congress held at Mumbai, Mr. P.R. Joshi, President – Group HR & Corporate Communications, Zydus Cadila received the HR Leadership Award, one of the prestigious awards at the Congress. Mr. P.R. Joshi received the Golden Statuette and citation from the Chief Guest, Mr. Praful Patel, the Hon'ble Minister for Civil Aviation, Government of India.

The HR Leadership Award which was a part of the Global HR Excellence Awards presented at the Congress, is in recognition of Mr. Joshi's leadership and contribution to the field of HR. As a thinker and a doer, his ability to drive initiatives that embrace change, encourage constructive challenges, high intrapreneurial skills and business acumen and his respect for values, integrity and work-life balance, made him a strong contender for the award.

The World HRD Congress based on the theme 'The HR Professional as a Business Manager in the New Millennium' was held at Mumbai from the 1st to 3rd of February. The Congress was co-sponsored by Times Ascent and ITM Business School. Over 2000 delegates comprising CEO's, HR professionals and consultants representing 60 countries attended the Congress.

A global healthcare provider and one of the leading healthcare groups of India, Zydus Cadila has been on a path of accelerated growth. From a turnover of Rs 2.5 billion in 1995, the group's turnover soared to Rs 15 billion in 2005 - 06. The group employs over 6000 employees and has a global presence in over 40 countries with subsidiaries in US, Europe, Japan, Latin America and South Africa.

***